

March 29, 2011 – Kingston, MA – RT Cotter and Associates, Inc Announces Raffle Winners from the NEHES 2011 Spring Conference.

RT Cotter and Associates, Inc. is pleased to announce raffle winners selected from among the many entries made at their booth during the NEHES Spring 2011 Conference in Leominster, Massachusetts. RTCA raffled off two prizes during the event; one day of free consulting by Rick Cotter, and a Flip Video Camera.

Selected to receive a free day of consulting by our owner, Mr. Rick Cotter is Mr. Mark Racicot, Director of Facilities at MetroWest Medical Center, in Framingham, MA. Mr. Shawn George, Plant Operations and Communications Manager at Frisbee Memorial Hospital in Rochester, NH won the Flip Video Camera.

“We were extremely pleased with the overall success of the conference,” said Mr. Albert Soule, VP Sales and Marketing for RTCA. “The quality of the technical program agenda attracted leaders from major healthcare facilities throughout New England.” Rick Cotter, president of RT Cotter and Associates, Inc. added “we continue to be impressed with the NEHES leadership and their dedication to these bi-annual events. I would like to add my congratulations to the winners of the RT Cotter and Associates, Inc raffle prizes.”

About RT Cotter and Associates, Inc.

RT Cotter and Associates, Inc. (RTCA) is a Massachusetts corporation dedicated to the dissemination and successful application of The Joint Commission and OSHA Standards for the healthcare enterprise. Based in Kingston, Massachusetts, RTCA is the preferred supplier of Environment of Care, Health and Safety, Facilities Management and Emergency Management training, consulting, assessment services and tools, for leading healthcare organizations nationwide.

The MSDSdirect™ Division of RTCA is a technology leader in the development of web-based MSDS management systems exclusively serving the healthcare industry.

RTCA delivers pragmatic, cost-effective solutions that enable our clients to gain and maintain a practical approach to achieving accreditation, complying with applicable laws, and reducing workplace risk and costs. RT Cotter and Associates, Inc. is committed to cutting edge business practices, employing a proven approach, personal attention, professional experience and exemplary service to clients.

For more information, contact Albert Soule, Vice President Sales and Marketing, 781-582-8111 X102 or alsoule@rtcotter.com.

Visit RT Cotter and Associates at [www.rtcotter.com](http://www rtcotter.com). Learn more about MSDSdirect™ at www.msdsdirect.com.

###